

PASKA'FLY GEL

INSECT REPELLENT

PASKA'FLY is a broad-spectrum product that immediately removes the harassment of flies, flat flies, ticks, flies, mosquitoes and other flying insects over a long period. PASKA'FLY is a gel, ready to use, that doesn't stain the hair of the horse.

Chrysanthemum cinerariaefolium, extract of fully flowering and mature flowers of Tanacetum cinerariifolium obtained with hydrocarbon solvents (CAS: 89997-63-7) 0.427%; Geraniol (CAS: 106-24-1) 0.436%

Palletization:

Tube of 200ml : 12 units per package / 480 units per pallet
Tube of 950ml : 12 units per package / 480 units per pallet

PRODUCT ADVANTAGES

- Includes Geraniol, a natural compound with proven effectiveness against flying insects
- Long-lasting repellent effect that strengthens with repeated use

TIPS FROM PASKACHEVAL

Tanacetum cinerariifolium extract, is widely used in veterinary insect repellents due to its ability to disrupt insect nervous systems, providing effective and natural protection against a variety of pests.

USES

Apply the product with the brush for an extended repellent action. The effect of PASKA'FLY is intensified from the second use of the product. Horses at work: once a day. Recovering horses or others: once a week. Shake before use.

200 ml packaging with APPLICATOR (brush): there is no discomfort for the horse during the application of the product.

Made in France

www.paskacheval.com

PaskaCheval
For Horses since 1959